Tell us about some of your first or earliest memories of IOLBC. Did you first come as a camper, for a family reunion, as a staff member, or is there some other introduction? About what year was it? How old were you? Why did you first come to camp, were you invited, part of a church group, some other way?

Tell us about a particularly memorable event while at camp. Did a storm blow through and find you singing songs in a storm shelter? Was there a particular speaker, counselor, or skit that stands out to you? Was there a key conversation had with a fellow camper or staff member that happened? What makes that moment (or moments) stand out when looking back on all of your camp memories?

How have you experienced God's presence while at camp? It could be something small but meaningful, it could be something big and life changing, and it could be anything in between.

How has your time at camp influenced or impacted your daily life? It's OK if that influence has faded due to time and circumstance. Be it short lived or lasting for decades, we want to hear about how your time at camp impacted your life at home in the "real world."

For Family and Youth Campers – Tell us about a counselor you had who has had a lasting impact on your life or your family's life? What year was it? Why were you at camp? Who was the counselor?

For Retreat Guests – Tell us about your favorite time visiting IOLBC for a weekend, a Family Reunion, a Quilting Retreat, or some other event. How many years have you been coming for that event? How did you get started coming to camp for your event?

For current and former staff – Tell us about a camper who God used to impact your life and faith. What was it about that particular camper that stands out?

For current and former staff – Tell us about a fellow staff member who God has used to impact your life and faith. Is there a favorite memory of your time on staff that you experienced God's presence?

What is currently your favorite or most turned to Bible verse? Why? Any chance that was once upon a time a theme verse and you can sing us the theme verse song?

Is there anything else you'd like to add about how God has used the ministry of IOLBC in your life?
